

The text you are going to download is the translation of important parts of the book “Training is dialogue...” made for public using

This book has been released in Czech Republic in 2014 and till April 2015, 8 months after the release, it remained Plot publisher's best sold book. The book was prepared for Czech dog trainers, but introduces R+ training principles to all the sorts of animal trainers. You can find there all the topics I have presented ABMA conferences and other meetings of animal trainers including the stress triangle or index of balance in training of animal group. I really hope you will enjoy the reading.

We have prepared a short translated example of the Czech manuscript. In the text you will find the most important parts of the book. We also include one full chapter which the Czech readers voted to be the most important one. Thereafter will be an inclusion of the title and information about f each chapter and “subchapter”.

We are looking for sponsor for the full book translation and also looking for potential publisher of this book in English language!

If you will like the text, please write your endorsement on our facebook

<https://www.facebook.com/Trainingisdialogue.com>

or send your opinion (or questions) to author's e.mail address frantasusta@yahoo.com

YOUR ENDORSEMENT COULD HELP US TO FIND PUBLISHER OR SPONSORS FOR FULL TRANSLATION.

For more information about the book you can ask the Czech publisher, company Plot, Mr. Matej Barták matejbartak@plotknihy.cz

Enjoy the reading!

RNDr. František Šusta, PhD.

Author of the book

